Investment strategy

The fund invests in companies listed in Switzerland and included in the Swiss Performance Index. The management team applies a bottom-up stock selection process, focused on the companies' cash flow returns on investment and their ability to reinvest their cash at high returns in addition to paying an attractive dividend. The fund's objective is to invest in quality companies with a consistent track record, a sound balance sheet, with a sustainable cash flow return on investment profile and the ability to distribute a durable high dividend or a growing dividend.
